SHANTUNG PLAN
MOST DESIRABLE
OF TWO OFFERED

Experts at Peace Conference Urged It Instead of 1915 Demands.

AMERICAN EXPERT TELLS SENATE HE OPPOSED BOTH

Two Advisers Said China Should Not Be Forced to Accept Either.

Washington, Aug. 22.—A first hand story of the negotiations which resulted in the treaty provision giving Japan control of Shantung province, China, was told to the senate foreign relations committee today by Professor E. T. Williams, formerly the state department's expert on far eastern affairs, who acted as a technical advisor to the American delegates.

Professor Williams said he had "objected very strongly" to the Shantung settlement but that his resignation from the peace commission had not been due to his opposition.

On April 22, the witness said, President Wilson sent for him and asked him which of the proposed alternatives would be less injurious to China—the transfer of the German Shantung rights to Japan or insistence upon the execution of Japan's treaty with China growing out of the famous 21 demands of 1915.

"I replied," continued Professor Williams, "that I hoped neither course would be found necessary. The President said that unfortunately Great Britain and France were bound by certain engagements with Japan to support Japan's claims in Shantung and that Lloyd George said he would bow only on the consideration that the 1915 treaty was executed.

"The President added that war seemed to have been fought to establish the sanctity of treaties and while some of them were unconscionable, it looked as though it would be necessary to recognize them."

The witness said he suggested that since the 1915 treaty was executed by force it ought not to be binding, but that the President replied Japan might not be willing to recognize that they were made by force. Professor Williams then suggested that the treaty have a blanket provision that all German property in China should be turned over to China and that any rights taken from Germany and Japan be returned to China within one year.

Later the expert advisors of the British, French and American delegations joined in a memorandum saying that transfer of the German Shantung rights to Japan would be the more desirable of the two courses suggested. Professor Williams and McClure, a British expert, joined in a memorandum saying China ought not be compelled to accept either alternative.

Navy Secretary Is Honored By Natives of Hawaiian Islands When He Lands From Warship.

Aboard the U. S. S. New York, Honolulu, Wednesday, Aug. 20.—Secretary of the Navy, Daniels, and his official party of officers and men of the dreadnought New York arriving here today were treated with the hospitality that long has distinguished the Hawaiian Islands.

The New York and four destroyers were tied alongside their piers almost in the center of the city. Off Waikiki beach the great dreadnought was met by scores of small craft.

On the dock were Governor McCarty, the mayor and other civic and military dignitaries. Native girls of Hawaiian, Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, white and American parentage were there also carrying gaily colored leis, the necklace of Hawaii, which they threw aboard the battleship until every officer and crew member had a new one.

Most of the leis were made of flowers, although there were others of gaily colored papers and feathers.

From the time he went down the New York gang plank, Secretary Daniels time was fully occupied. From the ship he was taken to a hotel at Waikiki beach where he was received with all the pomp of a visiting monarch as coming to the old Hawaiian custom, by the sons and daughters of Hawaiian warriors.

Detectives Find $1700 in Cash With Bank Books Showing Deposits of $19,000 — Faces Burglary Charge.

Cleveland, Aug. 22.—A week search by postoffice inspectors and detectives ended late last night in the taking into custody here of a third suspect who is believed to have some connection with the gang of bandits who several weeks ago robbed the West Cleveland Banking company of $65,000.

The suspect was being held by police today for investigation, before being turned over to Federal authorities where it is said he is wanted on a charge of blowing the safe of a Pandora bank on June 19 and robbing it of $25,000.

When taken into custody by postoffice inspectors E. B. Deady, detective of Federal Bureau of Investigation, and two local detectives, the suspect had $1700 in bills on his person and bank books showing deposits of $19,000.

Postoffice inspectors say the man is believed to know much about a number of robberies of safes in small postoffices in the southern part of the state. The Columbus police have been working on the case and trading the man, who was a former saloon keeper in another town, for some time.

Seven More Days and It's Over.

Many of the prominent citizens of Newark, many of the leaders in every township of Licking county are now engaged in an earnest effort to win the Victory shaft for Licking county.

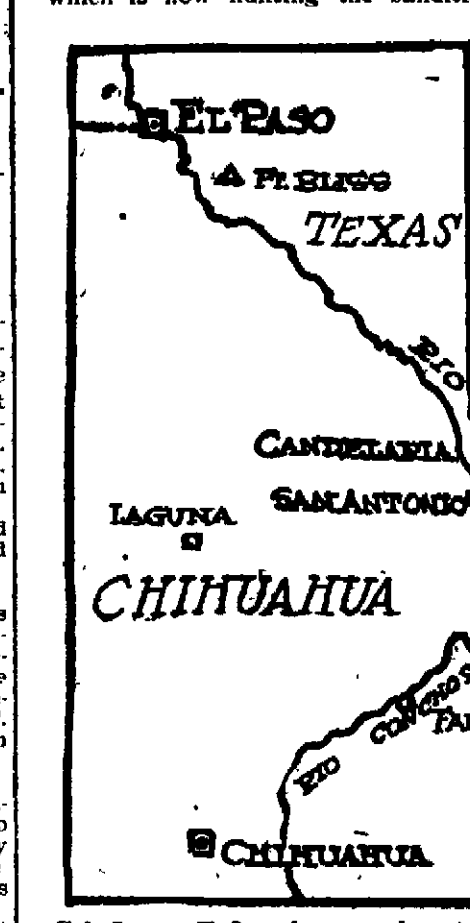

The race has only seven more days to run. Licking county today holds a slight lead over every other county in the state and Ohio is leading the nation in War Savings Stamps Sales. Licking county will come out of the contest with flying colors on September 1 if everybody will put his shoulder to the wheel right now. The leading men and women and firms of the community are buying all of the W. S. S. the law allows, but it will take the $500, $100, $50, $25 and $5 purchases to put Licking over the line.

If Licking is to win there must be a perfect avalanche of stamp sales next week. Every township must do its part. Every citizen must respond to the limit of his or her ability. The thing that the shaft represents—the honor of being the leading county in America—the credit of having a 100% war record—is worth while. To win will be a great national advertisement for Licking county.

FOOD CONTROL IS EXTENDED IN BILL

House Considers Amendments to War-time Law to Reach Profiteers in Many Lines.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Amendments to the wartime food control act, extending the measure to peace times and putting "teeth in it," as requested by Attorney General Palmer, were before the house today. The act as amended by the agriculture committee and unanimously reported yesterday was broadened to include wearing apparel, containers of food, fuel oil, fertilizer and fuel oil, includes retailers within the scope of its provisions and provides a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine for profiteering. Farmers are exempted, the committee declaring there was an absence of evidence to show profiteering in their case.

Should the recommendations of the committee be adopted government officials and members of congress believe a long step forward will have been taken in the fight to lower the cost of living. Numerous other bills affecting various features of the problem are pending in both branches of congress and the high cost of living continued to hold front rank in capital discussions.

An end to profiteering in sugar was believed assured with the announcement that actual control of prices of this commodity had been resumed by the government through an agreement between the food administration and the department of justice under which licenses will be revoked by the former when it is shown by the latter that the dealers have been profiteering. A state ment in connection with the announcement said sugar should reach the consumer at 11 cents a pound.

Fears Reduction of Prices Due to Over Production Here.

Senator Owen said, "to accomplish these results, I fear a serious business reaction will take place in the United States by cutting off a large part of the foreign market of our surplus products, throwing these products back on the United States and causing a very serious reduction of prices due to overproduction. I agree that prices should come down, but the reduction should be by the elimination of excess profits artificially placed upon goods, and they should not come down by cutting down the wages paid to labor. There is a natural increase of prices in the United States due to the expansion of our currency by excess gold imports and by the development of federal reserve notes against commodities which have taken the place of gold as a basis of note issue."

CHARGES BAKERS
PROFITEER IN FOOD

Five Individuals and Four Corporations Named For Violation of the Valentine Anti-Trust Laws.

Columbus, Aug. 22.—Five individuals and four corporations, all engaged in the baking business, were indicted for violating the provisions of the Valentine anti-trust law by profiteering in food by the Franklin county grand jury which reported this morning.

Those indicted are Amzi G. Reek, vice president and general manager of the Columbus Bread company; George Bollinger, general manager of the Brenne man Baking company; J. W. Carlsbad, general manager of the Reynolds Baking company; Hector Urquhart of Springfield, president of the Reynolds Baking company; Sterling Donaldson, general manager of the Occident Baking company; The Columbus Bread company; The Brenne man Baking company; The Reynolds Baking company and The Occident Baking company.

The blanket indictment charges the companies and their managers with having operated a combine between January 14 and August 21, 1919, under which they increased the price of bread and prevented competition in its sale.

Prosecutor Schlessinger stated after the indictments had been returned that testimony showed that one of the companies indicted at one time had sold 20,000 pounds of bread to a stock dealer to be fed to pigs. The bread company, he said, contended that the bread was sold to a number of witnesses said they had eaten the bread and that it was fit for consumption. The bread was sold to the stock dealer for a cent a loaf.

LABOR PARTY TO HOLD CONVENTION

New Political Party Organized in Chicago Calls For Election of Delegates For Union Men.

Cleveland, Aug. 22.—The national convention of the newly formed national Labor party, will be held in Chicago on Saturday, November 22, with approximately 1500 to 2000 delegates representing the labor movement of the country in attendance. Max Hays, chairman of the executive committee of the new party announced here today.

Mr. Hays was elected temporary executive committee chairman at a conference of labor party organization representatives in Chicago last Monday, attended by representatives from Illinois, California, Ohio, New York and Connecticut.

A call will be sent out from Chicago within a week asking about 10,000 labor organizations throughout the country and to more than 700 city central labor bodies to elect delegates to the convention for the purpose of formally organizing the labor party.

The basis of the representation shall be one delegate from each state and local organization with a membership of 500 or less and one delegate for each 500 additional members of major fraction. The call in part follows:

"We hold that the formation of a national labor party has not only become expedient, but imperative. The hopeless bankruptcy of the dominant political parties and their utter inability to function in the interests of the people in the present crisis and to meet the profound economic and social problems that now exist that make it self evident that the people must take the reins of government in their own hands if grave consequences resulting from our present situation are to be averted and that the future is to be made safe for justice and democracy."

"Organizations selecting delegates shall subscribe to the platform for the formation of a labor party of broad and comprehensive character, embracing industrial and social democracy embodying the following:

1.—Restoration of all civil liberties.

2.—The national ownership and democratic management of the means of transportation and communication, mines, finance, and all other monopolized and national resources.

3.—The abolition of excessive land ownership and holding land out of use for productive purposes.

4.—The new party expects to draw heavily from both of the old parties and from the moderate element of the Socialist party.

BANDITS KILLED

obtained his information from Calico cavalry patrol.

Marfa, Tex., Aug. 22.—Before starting on his return by airplane today to join the punitive expedition in Mexico, Captain Leonard Matlack of the Eighth Cavalry, who rescued Lieutenants Peterson and Davis, held by Mexican bandits, sent a telegram to his little daughter Rosa, who lives at 1203 South First street, Louisville, Ky., telling her that he was safe. The girl's mother is dead and she lives with Captain Matlack's brother.

Captain Matlack shared honors with General Joseph T. Dickman at a reception and court last night. Captain Matlack, their wives, his fellow-officers and their wives, congratulated Captain Matlack on his rescue of the two aviators and his escape with part of the money.

Rifles and automatic pistols belonging to the four bandits killed in Mexico, Wednesday, were recovered by cavalry troops together with a quantity of American-made ammunition, which was found on the bodies of the dead men. Jesus Janir, who was killed in an assault on the blockhouse, was arrested at the Brit ranch last year, taken to Candelaria, Texas, and placed in jail, his son Francisco, also killed Wednesday, broke the lock, liberated his father, and both escaped to Mexico.

Juan Jose Fuentes, the third bandit identified, is charged with killing a man at Barranquilla, Chihuahua. He crossed to the American side following the killing and was pursued back into Mexico by United States troops recently.

According to Captain Matlack, Jesus Renteria cut the throat of Mike Welch, stage-driver between Valentine and Candelaria, Tex., December 25, 1917, when the latter was passing through the aged driver's body and cut his throat with a pocket knife while another member of the band held his head by the hair. Renteria is known as "the fiend" on both sides of the river, Captain Matlack said.

While no official announcement was made it is understood that co-operation will be given the Americans by Carranza troops. Action of Mexican federal troops yesterday in permitting American troops to pass in the pursuit of the bandits being considered evidence of a friendly attitude.

The American punitive expedition against Mexican bandits who held Lieutenants Harold G. Peterson and Paul H. Davis, army aviators, for ransom, was making progress today, according to advices from the field, and reports that the United States forces would be withdrawn at once were denied officially.

No definite time has been fixed for the withdrawal, but it is understood that the plan of campaign includes at least another week's search through the mountains for the Renteria band.

The American troops camped last night at a place where there was plenty of water. The soldiers scouted the surrounding country through one day in separate detachments, but returned to the camp at dark. The trails are so rocky and steep that pack mules carrying supplies fell over cliffs and several were lost. A number of horses of Major C. C. Smith's command also fell off the trail but none of the horses or riders were injured.

The storm soaked the blankets and uniforms of the men, causing many to sleep in wet clothes last night.

Five bandits are known to have been killed by the Americans so far with a possibility of a sixth one—a bandit having been seen to fall from his horse when aviators returned the fire. The report developed that the two prisoners reported captured by Captain Matlack were men killed at the blockhouse on Wednesday.

The American Red Cross sent an automobile load of cigarettes, chewing gum and tobacco to the river for loading on pack mules en route to the punitive expedition. Aviators loaded planes with the same articles to take to the cavalry today.

ANOTHER AVIATOR IS MISSING ON BORDER

Elecentro, Calif., Aug. 22.—Lieutenant G. W. Pardy and J. McLaughlin, flying army planes and each carrying an observer, alighted here yesterday preparatory to a search for Lieutenant Waterhouse, who they said had been missing from Rockwell field. Lieutenant Waterhouse was last seen at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon at Jacumba Springs.

All three aviators are members of the Ninth aero squadron assigned to border patrol. The two who arrived today would not hazard an opinion as to whether Lieutenant Waterhouse has descended in Mexico, but it was understood that they planned search on both sides of the international line.

YANKS CLASH WITH MEXICANS; KILL FOUR

Marfa, Texas, Aug. 22.—Four Mexican bandits were killed by American troops in Mexico Wednesday, Captain Leonard Matlack, who arrived here by airplane last night, reported. They were surrounded in an adobe blockhouse that the Mexicans had constructed in a mountainous area.

The bandits were shot and killed when they found they were trapped and escaped. When the American troops approached the blockhouse with the intention of searching it the Mexicans opened fire from port holes.

The fire was returned and the block-

Sprinkling Does More Harm Than Good

(National Crop Improvement Service.)

"MOISTURE is the keynote of a successful garden and yet it is left to chance more than any other one essential. If plants are eaten by bugs or wilted by blight, the gardener is at once up in arms but he still depends upon providence to bring him rain long after the time when the plants have begun to suffer.

"The be-ribboned lady in a shepherdess hat with blue bows tied to a sprinkling can, who appears on the cover of our garden magazines, is responsible for a good deal of misinformation. Her dribbling sprinkling does the plants more harm than good.

"Do not water your vegetable garden nightly with a sprinkling shower from the hose.

"Dig trenches along the side of your vegetable rows and around your fruit trees. Arrange to have your water supply high enough to irrigate thoroughly and a soaking once a week, when the sun is not shining (early morning and evening is best) will restore the vitality and get pop to your plants," says Mr. Frank Baackes, vice-president, American Steel & Wire company.

"When it is considered that the alchemy of nature makes foliage and fruit out of a few mineral substances, sunshine and moisture, be sure that the conditions are right to help nature.

"Water you garden but give it plenty while you are watering. A little sprinkling will do a great deal of damage. Watch the surface of your grounds and do not let cracks form. After soaking as soon as cracks begin to appear, pulverize with a cultivator or hoe, keeping your mulch. Crops are mostly made of water. You must supply the water if nature fails."

DAIRYMEN HEAR BREEDERS TALK

Nearly 175 Attend Annual Picnic at Miller Farm Thursday—Rain Keeps Many Away.

The annual picnic of the Licking county dairymen held yesterday on the farm of William C. Miller, three miles northwest of Granville on Loudon street, was a pronounced success, although the rain which fell during the morning and up until 1 o'clock kept many away.

A picnic dinner was served. About 175 people were present. After dinner Peter Small of Chesterland gave an excellent talk on Holstein breeding. W. C. Miller delivered an interesting address and County Agent L. L. Mowls told of activity in the farm bureau. Dr. A. E. Best gave an interesting talk. It was decided to hold a picnic again next year, the date and location to be determined later.

MEX. BANDITS WHO ROB SOLDIERS ARE EXECUTED

The report states the bandits had property of the sailors in their possession.

RAIN SPOILS TWELVE REUNION PICNICS

There were 12 different reunions and picnics held at Moundbuilders' park yesterday and the place resembled a big fair at the county fair. Ground Superintendent Wm. Hazlett took care of them all when the rain came up at noon and housed them all in the different buildings and Mrs. Hazlett gave up her dining room in the hotel to one family. There are still a score of picnics booked for this month and a number in September.

BUSINESS MEN SEEK TO SETTLE CAR STRIKE

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 22.—A committee of leading business men were to meet today in an effort to formulate a plan by which striking motormen and conductors of the Louisville Street Rail way company will return to work and end the strike which has entirely suspended street car service here since Monday. Unless the strike is settled within six days a sympathetic strike of all union organizations in the city will be called by the United Trades and Labor Assembly, according to a resolution adopted at a meeting of labor representatives last night.

This was announced today by the war department.

The aggregate strength of these units will be nearly 7,000 officers and men. The infantry regiment comprises 3,800, the machine gun battalion 775, the artillery 750 and the engineers 250, giving a total combatant strength of 5,500.

AKRON MACHINISTS
DEMAND $1 AN HOUR

Akron, Aug. 22.—Union machinists in Akron went on strike this morning for a 44 hour week and $1 an hour, second and third shift men to work 40 hours a week and draw pay for 44 hours. Other demands include a scale of 64 cents an hour for helpers.

Union leaders claim that 3,000 men will be effected and that machine work in 24 factories will be practically at a standstill. Manufacturers say that less than half that number will obey the strike order.

The International Harvester company, the largest employer of skilled machinists in the city, is not affected, as an agreement was reached at that shop some time ago. Other employers, it is said, ignored union demands and precipitated the strike action.

RED OUTFIELD IS WEAKEST HITTING CREW
AMONG LEADING TEAMS IN OLD LEAGUE

According to recent figures the outfield of the Cincinnati Reds is the weakest hitting bunch of gardeners representing the three leading clubs in the fight for the N. L. batting. Roush is the only .200 hitter. Neale is batting around .268 and the best

Mazze and Bressler can do is to hit over .200, a far cry from the .300 mark. But the holding of the Red gardeners has been super and Roush's hitting, coupled with the few timely swats of the others, has helped keep up the team's attack.

COST OF BAD RELATIONS.

The present situation of suspicion and distrust prevailing between railroads and other public utility corporations on the one hand, and the people on the other, is exceedingly costly and a drag on industrial prosperity. Both sides are to blame and both should set out to attain a better spirit.

Take the case of the average street railway. The public is convinced that if there has not been dishonesty, there has been too much disposition to make money out of the public. Consequently most street railways have not been able to get increases in fares corresponding with increase in costs.

The result is that no one wants to invest any money in street railways. People are afraid that they will be driven into bankruptcy by popular hostility. Consequently, when a street railway needs to borrow money to extend its lines, it has to pay an exorbitant rate of interest. This added interest cost will have to be paid for by the public. That is, the public will have to pay for the cost of its own suspicions, which have destroyed the credit of the road.

There has been some cause for suspicion. Probably the majority of these corporations are fairly honest, or at least as honest as average business, which is not wholly white. But many of them have been tricky and many of them have been grasping.

Now if the business of public service corporations is going to be conducted efficiently and economically, two things must happen. The business community must see that every vestige of dishonesty, every bit of the profiteering spirit, is taken out of them. And then the public must be equally ready to see that the credit of every honest corporation is restored, that its ventures are continued, that their money will be safe in it.

STOCK WATERING.

Many optimistic people think that the abuse of stock watering no longer exists. They feel that the moneyed interests and financial men, chastened by visitations of popular wrath, have repented of former shady methods so far as they existed, and have learned that honesty is the best policy.

However, the Wall Street Journal, one of the most conservative publications of the country, has just issued a protest against existing frauds of this kind. It speaks of one case of a flotation where the stock cost the promoters only $8.00 a share, but which was unloaded on the public for $50.00.

The lesson taught railroad financiers ought to be sufficient. Years ago many manipulators would get hold of railroad securities, dilute them with wind, water and hot air, sell them to the public for several times what they were worth, and then demand full dividends on face value of their inflated stock.

Infuriated by this practice, the public rose in wrath against the railroad corporations and went to the opposite extreme. In its anger, the railroads, even those honestly organized, were denigrated to which they were fairly entitled to maintain their properties and keep out of the insolvent court. While this extreme attitude was unreasonable and has worked to the harm of the public, it was the result of the original rapacity of crooked financiers.

The organizers of industrial corporations will establish their business on sound foundations only by playing fair. Any corporation seeking the funds of the public, should be willing, and should be required to show the exact value by imperial inventories of its property. If that had been required many years ago, billions of money invested in watered stocks would have been saved, and the financial interests would have the confidence of the people.

SELFISHNESS OF CLASSES.

Anyone who looks over newspaper and other expressions of opinion from class and trade sources, must be impressed by the spirit of selfishness commonly displayed. The organs of the capitalists seem anxious only to have the rights of property preserved. The organs of labor are clamoring for advantages for the unions, regardless of other elements. Farm papers can see only the interests of the farmers. Trade journals seem to consider the welfare of one trade.

Everyone must remember that the community at large has its interest far greater than that of any single class. Any proposition to appeal to the community at large, must seem fair to all elements. A great many of the propositions put forward by these various elements, seem very unfair. The dispassionate reader is impressed by their narrowness, their inability to see more than one point of view.

There is altogether too much class dictation. At some periods the capitalists appear the worst dictators, and crush the elements of manual labor into the dust with heartless selfishness. At other times labor appears the most ruthless, and highly organized groups threaten the community with paralysis of industry and starvation unless their demands are acceded to. At other times these two elements get together and by their power of organization squeeze the general public.

The prevalence in the world of narrowness and selfishness accounts for most of the social difficulties now existing. To attain its ends, any element must give the general public an impression of reasonableness and consideration of all interests. The man who can't attain this point of view, is not fitted for any form of leadership. He does his cause more harm than good.

Most of the boys of Newark are working this summer, and it is reported that some of them earn enough money to buy their own ice cream cones.

The government will have to borrow $2,000,000,000 to buy out the railroads, but the bottom bank will lend the money.

THE LIVING DEAD.

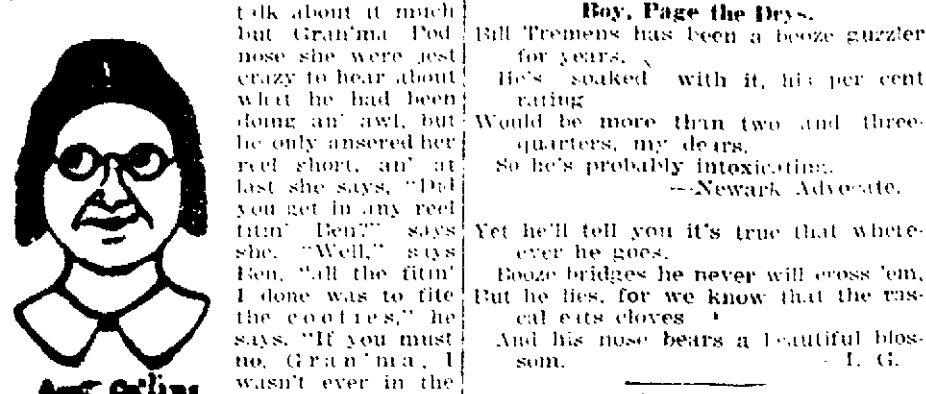

Los Angeles Times.
A desperate criminal, recently tried in a local court and sentenced to a term of twenty-five years in prison, is said to have received his sentence without exhibiting the least sign of emotion and with an indifferent stoicism. He rose to his feet composed on the part of both eyes, and took a walk with a steady gait, after all as the basis of general conduct under such circumstances, and what does it prove? Simply that the physical or animal characteristics of the criminal are in full control and that the moral sense, or the moral courage, is dead, it means that either the conscience or the imagination of the lawbreaker is atrophied, it means that the lawlessness of the man or woman, found guilty of wrongdoing, is so ingrained in him, that he is incapable of feeling or of doing anything but the criminal act. It means that the criminal has become a living dead man, a man who has lost all sense of shame or to display any act of sympathy. There is too much of this kind of dead about the murderer who goes to the scaffold with a cheerful face, the highwayman who takes his toll of the traveler with a friendly smile, and the man who is so hardened that he is capable of doing anything but the criminal act. It means that the criminal has become a living dead man, a man who has lost all sense of shame or to display any act of sympathy. The Advocate's TRAVELLING POST

The power of fortune is conferred only by the miserable, for the happy require all their successes to prudence and merit. - Swift

Gez Whiz!
"We first about high power, boy," said Ebenezer Hupp.
"Because food gives us much more joy when going down than up."

His Bitter Conclusion.
Aunt Caline says: Will B. Eaton's son, Ben, came home yesterday from the war. He didn't seem to want to talk about it much.

he says, "All the time they kept me a-crocking," he says, reel bitter. "Fine business for a full grown man," says he. "Oh well, Ben," says Gran'ma, "that's two bad, but I wouldn't worry any; you done the best you could," she says. "What do you aim to do now, that you're home agin?" she says. He got kind of put around the mouth an' says he, "I dunno edzactly, but I thought with all my war training I nute try to get me a place as matron in a ole ladies' home," he says.

Did You Know

IS BRYAN POLITICALLY DEAD?

(Nashville Tennessean.)
"Mr. Bryan is not politically dead," says H. H. Miller in the New York Evening Post. "New Yorkers will not believe such a statement, largely because they do not want to believe it," he continues. Also that it is their opinion of a western Democrat of the slough hat type is to be discussed as a possibility for the Democratic nomination for president next year, the New Yorker thinks of Champ Clark. He pointed out that former Speaker Clark is 69 years of age, while Bryan is ten years his junior. Then, he insists, "There are voting masses in the western states who identify Bryan with the advocacy of woman suffrage and prohibition, and the realization of a league of a score or more nations which entered into arbitration treaties with the United States in the more than two years Bryan was secretary of state." This political prospect, thinks Bryan, would not carry with his nomination "that so-called Wall Street taint," which cannot be said of some other Democratic aspirants for presidential honors.

The Tennessean is inclined to share "technically" in the declaration that "Mr. Bryan is not politically dead." Whether or not "the Bryan habit" of being the Democratic nominee for president mars his chances we are not so sure. The probability of his election from present indications, is still more remote.

Mr. Bryan has wielded a powerful influence in the cause of woman suffrage and in that of national prohibition. He has wielded a strong hand in the cause of labor, or, as he might express it, "the struggle to have the rights of organized labor equally recognized with those of organized capital." He has been an uncompromising peace advocate, and perhaps in his eagerness to impress the world with ideals of peace, Mr. Bryan has placed himself in an attitude to be criticized as a "peace at any price" advocate, notwithstanding the fact that he supported the administration in its prosecution of the war against Germany, and campaigned the country promoting all the measures necessary to win the war.

Mr. Bryan may be too old for presidential honors before his views prompting his resignation as secretary of state at a critical moment in the nation's existence be accepted by a majority or a creditable minority of Americans. That his motive was honest and sincere a majority may grant, but the lack of the motive which prompted his course at such a time will not be so easy to grasp. Mr. Bryan is loved and respected by hundreds of thousands who would not vote for him for president. His niche in history is safe, and coming generations will name him among the greatest of Americans.

DO YOU ENJOY RIDING OVER "CHUCK" HOLES?
You will when you are in an ALLEN.
That's a bold statement to make, but the ALLEN is a unusual car, and we will prove it to you, if you will but give us a chance.
The "bump" springs fairly fly out of the car.
They are very much longer in proportion than the springs of any comparable automobile, and they are better than most of them.
But they do cushion and absorb the jolts and bumps, so familiar to the rear seat rider.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Norpell-Edmiston.
The altar of the Second Presbyterian church was converted into a background of white flowers and foliage for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Ferneau Edmiston and Mr. Max Norpell, which was solemnized Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

In the absence of the pastor, Benjamin R. Veld, Dr. L. C. Sparks, pastor of the First M. E. church, read the marriage service.

Green and white were the bridal colors, the four bridesmaids: Miss Martha Wright, Mrs. Wilbur Tiemann (Marjory Lawhead), Mrs. Paul Meek (Louise Norpell), and Miss Katherine Johnson of Newark, Mass., wearing organdie frocks of green, and their bouquets were of swainsonia and roses.

Miss Mary Sherwood Wright attended the bride as maid-of-honor, and her frock was of white organdie, and her flowers were white. The bridal gown was fashioned of white satin and tulle with the full court-train. The full-length bridal veil was caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a shower of ribbons, bride's roses and orchids.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother Mr. Max Norpell, while the following acted as ushers: John Sherwood Fleck, Raymond E. White, Frederick Wright, Roy James of Cleveland, and Willard Wilson of Cleveland, a cousin of the bride.

Following the church service a reception was held in the Edmiston home in Hudson avenue. Palms, ferns and white flowers adorned the home. In the dining room the bridal table, which seated fourteen, was centered with a large heart-shaped cake decorated with orange blossoms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Edmiston of Hudson avenue, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norpell of the Granville road. He recently returned from service overseas with the 322nd Infantry—the only American troops to see service in Italy. He is associated with his father as an attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. Norpell left for a wedding trip of a few weeks and upon their return will be at home after October 1 at 39 Charles street.

Miss Ann Miresman entertained at her home in Hudson ave. Thursday evening with a towel shower in honor of Miss Helen Carille a bride-to-be of next month. Miss Carille was the recipient of many gifts. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Helen Carille, Mabel Gilmann, Helen Brown, Mae Higgs, Clarice Rooney, Dorothy Moran, Ornadaella Wiley, Esther Sunkel, Mildred Martin, Mary Baird, Gladys Van Tassel, Christine McCroskey, Sara Crist, Mildred Preston, and Mrs. Ethel Insko Varner a recent bride.

STRIKING NEW HOSE FOR SHORT SKIRTS

Hand in hand with the news that Paris is going stockingless comes the word that more attention than ever is being paid to stockings. One look at these and it is easy to believe the latter. They are of a brilliant purple shade with openwork or lace design and white embroidery reaching half way up. Needless to say the price is almost staggering.

PARTY OF O. S. U. MEN ARE TO SEE VOLCANIC ACTION

Peaks In Southwestern Alaska Are Spouting Fire and Ashes As Explorers Look On.

June 1, Alaska, July 20—(By Mail)—Volcanic peaks in the far southwestern corner of Alaska are in eruption this summer evidently for the benefit of a party of scientists sent by the National Geographic Society to study Mount Katmai, the greatest of Alaska's smoking mountains, and its Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes.

Persons who have returned recently from the volcanic country to the westward side of Shishaldin Peak, on Unimak Island, in the Aleutian chain, were in eruption recently. They also reported it was believed Mount Pavloff on the southwestern Alaskan mainland, also had spouted as the snow about the summit was coal black.

When the party of scientists left Anchorage, Alaska, on their way to the Katmai country, they said they believed there was little likelihood of an eruption this summer and declared they were certain there was absolutely no danger attached to the investigation. Katmai's last big "blow off" was in June, 1912.

The party of 25 scientists is headed by Professor Robert A. Griggs of the University of Ohio and some are from Carnegie Institute. They are planning to make observations of the botanical, biological and geographical effect of the 1912 eruption.

In 1913 Professor Griggs headed a party of scientists to Katmai and returned with the announcement that the crater was the largest on the globe and that near Katmai lay a great valley whose floor was dotted with thousands of mounds vomiting gray vapor, gas and smoke. This valley, Professor Griggs named "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes." Instead of ten thousand, it is said there are literally millions of smoking vents.

Congress recently set aside "The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes" as national property and it is believed that some day it will be a second Yellowstone geyser field. Steaming springs, it is said, will eventually take the place of the present smoking vents.

Professor Griggs and his party expect to remain in the Katmai district until the middle of September. Until they return nothing probably will be heard from them as there is no direct means of communication. Mrs. Griggs and children accompanied the professor to Kodiak, an island near Katmai and will remain there during the summer waiting for him to return.

Moving pictures of the smoking mountain and valley are to be brought back by the party.

NAME DESTROYER FOR COURAGEOUS YANKEE

San Francisco Aug. 22—The heroism of the late Lieutenant Arnold Marcus of the United States navy, in navigating to safety the explosion-torn submarine A-7 at Manila in July 1917, while he himself was suffering from fatal burns, was commemorated here today in the launching of the United States destroyer Marcus. The craft's sponsor was Mrs. Arnold Marcus, of San Francisco, widow of the young officer.

Lained and otherwise badly injured by an explosion of gasoline vapor in the hold of the A-7, Lieutenant Marcus refused aid for himself until he had insured the safety of the crew and beached the submarine. In a letter to Mrs. Marcus, who is the only daughter of Paul C. Marcus, of Chicago, superintendent of the Central division of the Associated Press, Secretary of the Navy Daniels recently wrote: "The conduct of your husband was that of a most gallant officer who though fatally injured, without regard to self, devoted every action and thought to the care of his vessel and men."

Lieutenant Marcus was a graduate of the Annapolis naval academy with the class of 1913. He had served in Mexican waters and was attached to the Asiatic fleet when he met his death. He was the son of Louis Young, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Sir Popham Young, an official of the government of India. Lady Young attended the launching of the destroyer Marcus.

The Marcus is a thirty-five knot, 300-ton, high speed, flush deck, destroyer of the most powerful build. It is 330 feet long and 30 feet beam.

ENGLISH WORKERS SPEND THEIR MONEY FREELY

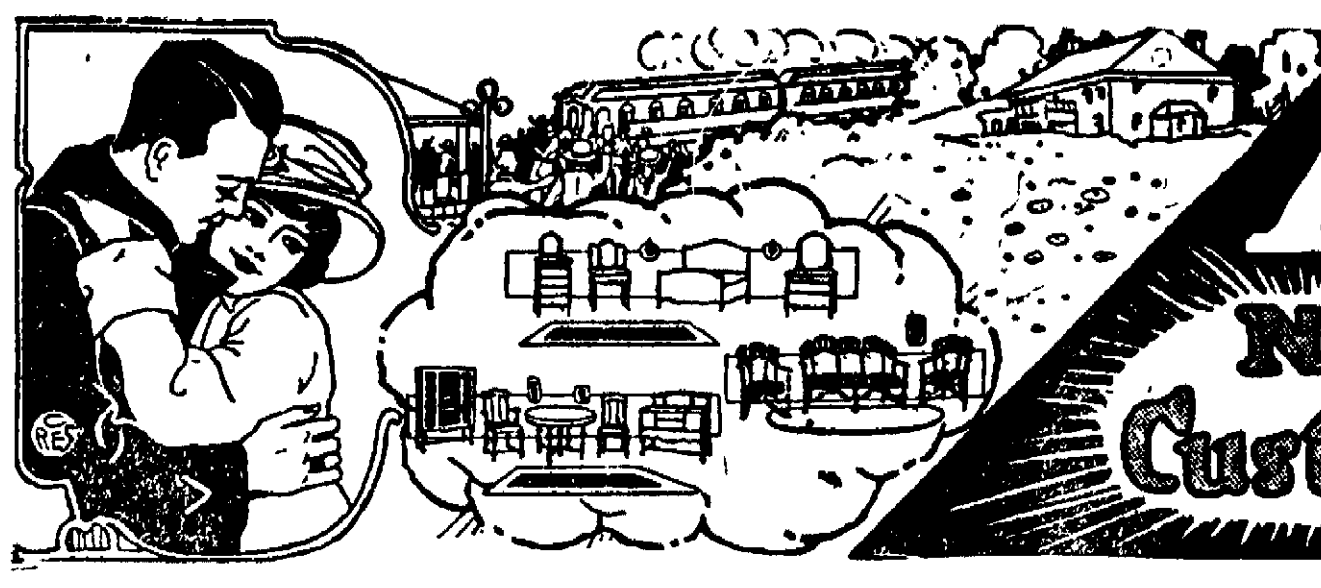

London, July 20—(By Mail)—More money than before is now in circulation in English villages, and as easy expenditure is apparent even to the casual passerby. Extra wages earned by workmen, housemaids and farm laborers have brought about an astonishing social change.

One of the signs of this is seen in the great increase in bicycles and motor cycles, which has necessitated the establishment of countless garages and repair shops throughout the country. Dancing and other clubs are springing up everywhere, and the cost of living, and the demand for a more comfortable life is assigned as the cause for this last development. It is taken for granted that a permanent thing, which is more likely to increase than to diminish.

Maj General von Lutwitz reviewing new German army said to be in training for march against Poland, above and Major General von Lettow-Vorbeck and his staff. He is sixth man from left. Notice in the photo of army marching the goose step is absent.

Recent dispatches from Germany stated that a new German army is being trained by Major General von Lettow-Vorbeck to march against Poland. The general is the new military dictator of Germany. The famous goose step, part of the "efficient" training of the German soldiers in the pre-war days, has been dropped since there is no keiser for whom it must be staged. Major General von Lutwitz recently reviewed part of the army now under training.

A HIGHER GAS RATE IS DUE TO A FUEL SCARCITY

(Lorain Times Herald)

That Lorain consumers of natural gas may be asked to pay a higher rate this winter than last, was intimated in a communication received today by Service Director W. A. Pillans from the Lorain Natural Gas company of Columbus, and of which the Citizens Gas and Electric company, Lorain, is a local branch.

The latter dealt at length with the controversy here in which Mr. Pillans asserts the gas company has failed to comply with its franchise, by not making extensions in the southern section of the city. Court action against the company has been threatened, unless the work is undertaken.

A full and frank statement of the communication stated, seemed a surprise. Attention was called to the question of local managers in Columbus, Kentucky, when the gas situation was taken up, and allotments of gas to each community made.

"We want to say at the outset that we will sanction the extension of the gas line at the very earliest moment, contingent upon our ability to do so, without impairment of service to our patrons already being supplied," said the company.

This statement, the company pointed out, does not mean that the work will be indefinitely delayed. Time to make an investigation of the local case was asked.

Unless Lorain consumers conserve the gas supply, the company asserted, there will be a shortage of nearly 100,000 cubic feet of gas every cold day this winter. Lorain has been allocated a supply of 1,200,000 cubic feet of gas. The demand, based on needs controlled by gas officials, places the consumption on a cold day at 3,744,000 cubic feet.

We are convinced in the light of the full knowledge we possess, and a complete readjustment of service and rates is absolutely necessary before winter sets in," the letter concludes.

Mr. Pillans declared that it is time to suggest to the company that gas might be conserved and more people served, if the use was limited to cooking and lighting.

FAMOUS WHISTLER PICTURE IS EXHIBITED IN LONDON

London, July 25.—(By Mail)—One of Whistler's most famous paintings, the "Little White Girl," is now on view in the National gallery to which it was presented together with two other Whistler paintings, "Cremorne Lights" and the "Fire Wheel."

The "Little White Girl" was painted in 1884 and exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1885 where it created a sensation and aroused much hostile criticism. One critic remarked that "whistler's paint made the most hideous of faces out of the women he painted, and an American critic described it as a "powerful woman with red hair and a vacant stare in her eyes."

Among the few who appreciated its charm was Swinburne who after seeing it wrote the poem "Before the Mirror." The picture, for which the model "Jo" sat, shows a girl in a simple white gown leaning against the mantle, her face reflected in the mirror.

"Cremorne Lights," a nocturne in blue and silver, a twilight scene with only two tones, the grey and the water slightly lighter in color, while the ghosts of buildings and the reflections of the lights of the old Cremorne Gardens.

The "Fire Wheel" is a picture of a fireworks display, a nocturne in black and gold.

FRENCH STEEL MAGNETS SEEK LORRAINE IRON MINES

Paris, July 25.—(By Mail)—Disposition of the iron mines and iron industries of the part of Lorraine reached to France by the peace treaty has become an object of competition between important iron and steel corporations and a syndicate of 200 iron foundries. The former seek to purchase and operate the mines and works, while the latter demand that both the mines and the works be acquired by the state to remain its property and to be operated under its direct control.

PATASKALA IS BOOSTING FOR COUNTY FAIR

The Pataskala Standard is a booster for the approaching county fair and yesterday published the following:

There is no earthly reason why Licking county shouldn't have the most successful county fair in the state. That being so, together with the fact that the agricultural board is composed of a bunch of hustlers, we may confidently expect the coming exhibit to be a top notcher.

The grounds at Newark are the most picturesque and beautiful of any fair grounds in Ohio; the roads leading to the county seat are par excellence, the date of the fair—Sept. 9, 10th, 11th and 12th the most delightful season of the year—

... Dreamy September, that season of amber haze—

Then why not every man jack of us get ready for this great outing and enjoy it to the full?

Mr. Harry D. Hale, the capable secretary, informs the Standard that the entries are already coming in, an unusual thing at this early date. There will be exhibits by at least 17 Boys and Girls clubs, while the premium list will total $10,000.

Be patriotic, and attend your own fair. Let's serve notice on Newark and the rest of the county that the "sweet end" intends to "set the pace" this year in the matter of attendance.

Yes sirs, Let's go!

We are now showing some of the very latest fall models in Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Suits at much less than the market price. See them.—The Hub.

Danger Lurks In Summer Foods For Babies

EVERY mother knows the evil effects of summer heat on cow's milk. This danger is equally great to all foods unless carefully kept in a cool place away from insects.

Bad food loses its nourishing value. It causes constipation and diarrhea. These are at best always prevalent in the summer time. They depress the mind and weaken the body, and may cause more serious illness.

The first precaution is to see that the stools are regular and normal. In the case of babies and children, if less than twice a day you may suspect constipation; if more than three times a day, diarrhea. A remedy is then needed that will regulate and tone the bowels, and you will find none safer and better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that millions of mothers constantly have in the house for just such purposes.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size. A free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Seven Miles of Bad Road

[National Crop Improvement Service.]

"It will not do any good to advise farmers not to retire and not to move to town, nor will it do any good to preach that boys must be kept on the farm. The only way to solve these two problems is to make country life as attractive and as convenient as town life and the automobile is rapidly doing it," says Mr. Frank Baackes, vice-president, American Steel & Wire company.

"I was reading the other day of a man in New York state who had worked his way up from boyhood and now owns a 130-acre farm improved, limed and fenced, with a beautiful house, big barns and modern improvements, well stocked, including 50 pure-bred ewes. Now he says he is going to move to town because his wife wants to go; because he lives eight miles from town over the most abominable road in the world.

"He claims he and his wife have been prisoners at hard labor without even the commonest of pleasures. He says that most of his friends have forsaken their farms and have gone to this town and he wants to go there and enjoy their society.

"When a farmer retires from his active out-of-door life and hangs around the house, his years are numbered and he becomes a nuisance to himself—and an especial nuisance to his wife.

"Now the crux of the whole matter is this: If that eight miles of road had been improved by this bunch of retired farmers, the town facilities could be theirs and they could enjoy the country as well. There is no excuse for eight miles of abominable roads in New York state or in any other state. It would take only a half an hour of very conservative driving for him to go to town over a good road and his boy is informed that if he goes to a big city to work he is likely to stand up in a sweating crowd in a street car for the better part of an hour before he can get to his lodgings.

"Therefore when we all realize that every man owes public service in road making, this moving-to-town bugaboo will not be so prevalent. Fix the road and you have fixed almost everything that counts."

Milady's Boudoir

The Art of Face Massage.

Before beginning a massage, wash the skin thoroughly with hot water, which will not only remove the dirt but will open the pores so they will absorb the cream. The fingers are then dipped in a pure cold cream and applied to the forehead and cheeks.

Use the rotary motion, with the upward stroke stronger than the downward. The cheeks, forehead and temples are massaged with this movement. Around the corners of the eyes use only the tips of the fingers, smoothing out the hair like lines which always form in this region. The chin must be given an extra share of attention, for it is inclined to lose its clear cut line when one has passed youth. Under the chin the stroke must be firm and strong, going up towards the ears in order to prevent the flesh from gathering beneath the chin point.

You will find elder flower cream one of the best for massaging. Below is the formula for making it. Almond oil one and a half ounces, white wax two and a half drams, spermaceti two and a half drams, lanoline one-half ounce, oil of bitter almonds one-half ounce, elder flower water one and a half ounces, and witch hazel one-half ounce. When mixing these ingredients first melt the wax and spermaceti in a porcelain dish, set in a basin of hot water. When they have blended add the lanoline and then heat in the oil slowly. Remove the vessel from the heat and add the elder flower water and witch hazel.

When the skin has absorbed all the cream that it can, wipe off the surplus with a soft towel and wash the skin with tepid water, afterward applying an astringent lotion. For steaming the face it is necessary to have a vessel with a large surface one-third full of water, which is kept steaming hot with an alcohol lamp. A changing dish answers the purpose well.

Be Joyful at Breakfast.

Not being able to become really active and energetic mentally and physically until the latter part of the morning is a familiar complaint at this season. If you find this applies to your particular case take yourself in hand and resolve to wake up bright and cheerful and brimful of courage, even if you have to resort to drastic methods to accomplish the desired results.

In this way you will save yourself the humiliation of the resultant grouchy so often occasioned by the breakfast table remarks. Leave the sleepy, refreshed feelings behind your bedroom door and begin the day filled with the joy of living.

When you awake at your usual rising time, do not give yourself 10 or 15 minutes to make up your mind to get out of bed. Do it immediately and, after wrapping your bathrobe about you, stand before an open window and take 10 deep breaths from the diaphragm, something slowly, holding for a brief time before exhaling, and then exhaling slowly.

After this, spread a large Turkish rug or bath-rug on the floor, remove your bathrobe and exercise in the following manner: First, sit up and raise your feet, by bending the knee, bring the knee up to the chest by clasping it with both hands. Repeat this movement 10 times and then exercise the other knee. Then throw back the shoulders as far as possible and extend the arms at full length, level with the shoulders. Now touch the heels together in front and then at the back. Continue this movement 20 times.

For the third exercise, lie flat on the mat, face downward, and making the muscles of the arms and legs tense, raise the body on the arms with the palms extended upon the mat and supported by the weight of the body. After repeating this movement several times, turn over on your back and tense the muscles of the back, legs, drawing the knee up to the chest. Exercise the leg in the same manner and, when you feel fatigued, change to some other movement.

Every Day Etiquette

"Supposing my name was Sarah Jones but my friends called me Sadie. Should by name be engraved on my visiting cards as Sarah or Sadie?" asked Sadie.

"A certain degree of formality should be observed on the engraving on a visiting card. Your correct name is preferable to that used by your friends answered her aunt.

"On which finger should the engagement and wedding rings be worn?" asked Marie.

"Rings are usually worn on the third finger of the right hand, but the third finger of the left hand is usually reserved for the wedding and engagement rings," said her sister.

"A friend secured for me an invitation for a reception as she was anxious for me to attend. As I could not go is it necessary for me to call on the hostess?" asked Joan.

"Whether you attended the reception or not, you should call upon the hostess within two weeks after the date of the entertainment," advised her mother.

HOW ARE YOUR KIDNEYS?

ASKS DR. CAREY, SPECIALIST

Famous Kidney and Bladder Physician Retiring From Active Practice Appoints Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store Agent in this Vicinity For His Great Medicine, Marshroot.

During his forty years of constant practice Dr. Daniel G. Carey has helped many thousands of despairing kidney, bladder and prostate sufferers from all sections of the country to regain robust health.

Don't take any chances with your kidneys. If you have the faintest suspicion that your kidneys are weak or your bladder is irritated, the wisest thing you can do is to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot at once.

Remember, Marshroot is not a cure-all or potent medicine, but is Dr. Carey's most wonderful prescription, which he has given to the world and his army of patients, only because he has decided to continue his active practice.

The best signals often indicate that the kidneys are ailing and need attention.

Don't wait for headaches and little specks in the vision before the cure.

Some times a few feet feel heavy, as if your shoes were full of lead.

Often the joints ache or you have quick, darting pains shooting through the back or side.

Then again that frequent desire to empty the bladder, cold, clammy feet and just a little puffiness under the eyes.

Occasionally the hands or feet swell slightly and the palms of the hands are moist.

No regular practicing physician has devoted more time to the study of kidney and bladder diseases than Dr. Carey. He himself asserts that many thousands of cases of Bright's disease and even diabetes could have been conquered by Marshroot, if it had been taken in time. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription at Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store and all reliable pharmacists the country over. Keep in mind the name, Dr. Carey's Marshroot. No other medicine can take its place.

Dr. Carey is prepared to release these children coming under the school law.

Parents are requested to have their children ready to enter the first day, since starting late is a great handicap to the pupil. The compulsory attendance laws will be strictly enforced.

PROF. D. P. McDONALD

On September 2nd the Newark Business College begins its 34th year. This popular college has had a wonderful growth under Mr. McDonald's efficient management, showing that the character of instruction offered is meeting with public approval. It is interesting to note that several students from other states were in attendance last year. It is needless for any one to leave Newark to attend a business college in a larger city when right at home a modern, efficient business college is conducted. Mr. McDonald states that during the past year the college was unable to supply the demand for its graduates. Young people who are ambitious and serious-minded should enter this college in September. The College conducts day and evening sessions. Students may enter any time. 8-22-1f

THE A B C OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

By DR. FRANK CRANE.

1. What is the League of Nations?
A. A union of the strongest civilized nations formed at the conclusion of the great war.

2. What is its object?
A. First, to promote the Peace of the World by agreeing not to resort to war. Second, to deal openly with each other, not by secret treaties. Third, to improve international law. Fourth, to co-operate in all matters of common concern.

3. Does it presume to end war?
A. No more than any government can end crime. It claims to reduce the liability of war.

4. What will be done to any nation that makes war?
A. It will be boycotted and otherwise penalized.

5. How else will the probability of war be lessened?
A. By voluntary, mutual and proportionate disarmament; by exchanging military information, by providing for arbitration, by protecting each nation's territorial integrity and by educating public opinion to see the folly of war.

6. What else does the League propose to do for mankind?
A. (1) Secure fair treatment for labor, (2) suppress the White Slave Traffic, the sale of dangerous Drugs, and the traffic in War Munitions, (3) control and prevent Disease, (4) promote the work of the Red Cross, and (5) establish International Bureaus for other Causes that concern the human race.

7. Who are to be Charter Members of the League?
A. The United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, India, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Uruguay and the following states which are invited to accede to the covenant: Argentina, Republic, Chili, Colombia, Denmark, Netherlands, Norway, Paraguay, Persia, Salvador, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Venezuela.

8. What other nations may join?
A. Any self-governing State which will agree to the rules of the League, provided the League accepts it.

9. What Agencies will the League have?
A. (1) An Assembly, composed of representatives of all the member Nations, (2) a Council of Nine, (3) a Secretary-General, (4) a Mandatory Commission, to look after colonies, etc., (5) a Permanent Commission, for military questions, (6) various International Bureaus; such as the Postal Union, etc., (7) Mandatories.

10. What is a Mandatory?
A. Some one designated by the League to attend to the welfare of "backward peoples residing in colonies of the Central Empires, or in territories taken from them." This is to be a "sacred trust," and in selecting a mandatory the wishes of the people of the area in question shall be the principal consideration.

11. Does the League mean a Super-nation?
A. No. It interferes in no way with any Nation's Sovereignty, except to limit its power to attack other nations.

12. Can any Nation withdraw when it wishes?
A. Yes. The League is Advisory and Co-operative, not coercive.

13. Does the League put Peace above Justice and National Honor?
A. No. It puts Reason before Violence.

14. Does not the League take away the Constitutional right of Congress to declare war?
A. No. The League can advise war; Congress alone can Declare war.

15. Does it destroy the Monroe Doctrine?
A. Exactly the contrary. For the first time in history the other nations recognize the Monroe Doctrine; and extend it to all the world.

16. Does it not interfere with Treaty Making Powers of the United States?
A. No. It is a Treaty. We can make any Treaty we please.

17. Would we have had the Great War if we had had this League?
A. No. That War cost the world over 7,000,000 lives and 200,000,000 dollars.

18. Of what importance is the League?
A. It is the greatest deed of mankind in the history of the world.

19. Has not anyone a right to object to the League?
A. Yes. This is a free country. Any one has a right to any opinion he chooses.

20. Why is the League so bitterly opposed by a few?
A. Because, unfortunately, any Treaty or League must be made by the President, and a President is chosen by a political party and many members of the opposite Party think they must destroy whatever he does.

HOWLING GREEN.

There will be Sunday school services at the Bowing Green M. E. church next Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and preaching at 2:30.

TRAVELED BY DEVIOUS WAYS

Correspondent Experienced Acute Discomfort While on a Journey Through the Holy Land.

It is eight or nine miles, as I estimate, from the Euphrates to Constantinople, if one follows the course of the Bagdad railroad, whose track is laid a part of the way where the feet of the "ten thousand" had marched, where St. Paul had tramped in his first and second missionary journeys, and where Godfrey of Bouillon, Tancred, Baldwin, Raymond and Bohemond had passed, and Frederick the First had perished.

In my anabasis (if I may give my lonely expedition a name so ambitious and yet so contained by many a youth) from the Euphrates toward Constantinople I had to make a circuitous journey, as did St. Paul from Damascus, writes John H. Finley in July Scribner's. I went first from Aleppo to Damascus, then to Jerusalem, then to Haifa (near old Caesarea where St. Paul took ship), and then by sea to Beirut and Herina, on the coast of Asia Minor, a few miles from St. Paul's "home town" Tarsus, which was also the same town as that toward which Jonah sailed from Jaffa, when evading the call to Nineveh. But the reader would, I fear, find this an uncomfortable and perhaps a tiresome trip, even to read of, for I traveled most of the way in freight cars (of the type known to our soldiers in France, accommodating "forty-five hommes or eight chevaux") on a trolley (which was absolutely the most uncomfortable means of transportation that I had ever endured) and on a British "destroyer" which might very fitly have borne St. Paul's name before he changed it, in the days when he was "breathing out threatenings and slaughter."

There is a shorter and less indirect way, for, speaking generally, there is no direct way from one place to another in that part of the world. This is probably the reason why the street in Damascus called "Straight" got its distinguishing name.

SUFFERED FOR THEIR FAITH

French Huguenots Driven Into Exile by the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

The Huguenots were the Puritans of France in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The name was first used about 1580; its origin is unknown. The Huguenots suffered severely in the reigns of Francis I and his immediate successors, and after 1562 were frequently involved in war, under the leadership of such men as Admiral Coligny and King Henry IV of France. Coligny and from 20,000 to 30,000 others fell in the massacre of St. Bartholomew, August 24, 1572. It is disputed in history whether this was suddenly caused by the discovery of Huguenot plots or had been premeditated. In spite of all this, they continued numerous and powerful and the edict of Nantes, issued in 1598 by Henry IV gave them full political and civil rights. Their power was broken after the surrender of La Rochelle and the revocation of the edict of Nantes by Louis XIV in 1685, and hundreds of thousands of Huguenots went into exile, going to Prussia, Holland, Switzerland, England, Scotland and America.

Chinese Curb Tobacco Users.

China's ministry of the interior has telegraphed the following circular instructions to the Shenchangs and Tuntungs all over the country, according to the Peking Daily News:

"It has been noticed that almost everybody in the country has indulged in the use of cigars or cigarettes, which will become a worse curse to the nation than opium in former days unless some restrictions are imposed. It is hereby decided that before taking up any measure for the total prohibition of its use, the following restrictions shall be imposed: First, no boy or girl under eighteen years of age shall be allowed to smoke cigars or cigarettes; second, any military or naval man using it shall be punished; third, the use of cigars and cigarettes in all government schools and colleges shall be strictly prohibited."—Far Eastern Bureau Bulletin.

Legislators Must Work.

A novel method of forcing attendance in the chamber of deputies of the Republic of Argentina has been suggested by a member who is out of patience with those who draw their salaries from the public purse but fail to fulfill their constitutional obligation of regular attendance.

The suggestion is in the form of a bill providing for payment per day to deputies instead of a lump sum every month. Failure to answer the roll call is equivalent to absence, and the measure provides that no deputy shall receive his pay for days when he is absent from the regular sessions.

Land for National Forests.

The national forest reservation commission has just approved for purchase 49,581 acres of land for national forests in the White mountains, Southern Appalachians and Arkansas.

The largest tracts are in the White mountains, where 21,022 acres in Carroll and Grafton counties, New Hampshire, and 1,220 acres in Oxford county, Maine, were approved for purchase at an average price of $7.15 per acre. These lands include the scenic peaks of Mount Chocoma and Mount Panag, much visited by tourists and made accessible by trails maintained by the Chocoma club.

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own, that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia. I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when 7 months old weighed 10 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONTGOMERY, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FALSE RUMOR

We understand that a report has been circulated that our Optical Department is owned by strangers and in no way connected with the store. This is entirely untrue as the majority of people know.

Mr. W. L. Haynes, who is at the head of the Optical Department, is one of the Haynes Bros., and has been examining eyes for over twenty-one years. His success in this profession is plainly evident by the great practice he has built up, which was made possible only by the use of the most modern instruments and methods. In fact his practice has grown to such an extent that it now takes two Optometrists completely to handle it properly.

In order to serve our patients better the examining rooms have been retained in the store location where we are able to supervise our Opticians in the grinding of lenses for the prescriptions written by our Optometrists. The shop being equipped for both surfacing lenses from the rough glass and grinding or edging the finished lenses to fit frames or mountings.

We invite you to take advantage of our free adjustment service. If you are in need of a pair of lenses cleaning cloth just call at Haynes Bros., where they will be gladly given you without charge. $20.22.

BIG AIRPLANE FLEET HUNTS FOR AVIATOR

San Diego, Calif., Aug. 22.—Army aviators from Rockwell Field, started early today in a fresh attempt to solve the mystery of the disappearance Wednesday, near Jacumba, Mexico, of Lieutenant Frederick B. Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly, of the ninth aero squadron patrol and their big De Havilland plane.

This announcement was made by Colonel A. K. Hanlon, commanding at Rockwell Field after the night was passed without any tidings of the missing fliers.

Fifteen aviators from the field, aided by details of Mexican troops ordered to the search by Governor Estaban Cantu, of Lower California, yesterday vainly combed the timbered hills near Jacumba, where the lost fliers are reported to have been seen last on their way here from Yuma, Arizona.

Every assistance was given by the Mexican soldiers, acting under instructions from Governor Cantu, who always has maintained the most friendly relations with Americans along the border.

EXPORTS DECREASE IN JULY, REPORT SHOWS

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting; then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug! Adv.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multisilf coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.
